

Commas in Dates, Series, and Addresses

Identify Where the Comma Belongs

Commas help separate items and ideas in sentences:

Dates: Place a comma between the day and the year (October 12, 2026).

Series: Use commas to separate three or more items in a list (apples, bananas, and oranges).

Addresses: Place a comma between the city and the state/country (Austin, Texas).

1. My little sister was born on July 4 2018.

[after July / after 4 / after 2018]

2. We visited Boston Massachusetts during our road trip.

[after Boston / after Massachusetts / no comma needed]

3. Emma bought notebooks pencils and erasers for school.

[after notebooks and pencils / after bought / after erasers]

4. Our school picnic will take place on May 15 2027.

[after May / after 15 / after picnic]

5. Lions tigers and bears live at the city zoo.

[after Lions and tigers / after live / after zoo]
