

Past, Present, and Future Tense

Verbs & Tenses

Change the Verb Tense

Present tense tells what is happening now (walks, plays).

Past tense tells what already happened (walked, played).

Future tense tells what will happen later (will walk, will play).

1. Present: The dog barks at the mail carrier. (Change to Past)

2. Past: She walked to the grocery store. (Change to Future)

3. Future: They will plant flowers in the garden. (Change to Present)

4. Present: He paints a landscape picture. (Change to Past)

5. Past: We played board games after dinner. (Change to Future)
