

Possessive Nouns and Pronouns

Nouns and pronouns

Possessive Nouns vs. Possessive Pronouns

my her cat's bird's their, children's

A possessive noun shows ownership using an apostrophe (the boy's hat, the dogs' bone).

A possessive pronoun shows ownership without an apostrophe (his hat, their bone, my, your, her, its, our)

1. The _____ nest was built high up in the oak tree.
2. Emma forgot _____ jacket on the playground at recess.
3. The _____ toys were scattered all across the playroom floor.
4. The _____ whiskers twitched as it watched the fish tank.
5. The students turned in _____ homework to the teacher.
6. I brushed _____ teeth before going to sleep.