

States of matter

Material properties

When matter is solid, molecules stay locked together in the same shape.
When matter is liquid, molecules stay close together but can move around.
When matter is a gas, molecules spread away from each other.

Write solid, liquid, and gas on the lines.

Label each picture solid, liquid, or gas.

Draw one example of each state of matter.

solid

liquid

gas

